

AN INVITATION TO DC's AFRICAN IMMIGRANT COMMUNITY

The Standing Committee on Fairness and Access ("Standing Committee") of the D.C. Court of Appeals and the D.C. Superior Court invite members of the AFRICAN IMMIGRANT COMMUNITY to a dialogue session. The Standing Committee is seeking information regarding the experiences of African immigrants with the D. C. Courts.

The Standing Committee is interested in hearing about your experiences with the Courts including experiences as a litigant, witness, spectator, juror, or attorney in a proceeding or matter; an applicant for a job, clerkship, or internship; a victim of crime seeking compensation; or a user of any court service, including mediation, probate, and website. The Standing Committee is particularly interested in any issues, barriers, or impediments to the judicial system due to language, culture, immigration status, race, ethnicity, national origin, or gender.

Tuesday, February 26, 2008, 6:00 - 8:00 p.m.
Edna Frazier Cromwell Community Room
The Frank D. Reeves Municipal Center
2000 – 14th Street, N.W.
Washington, DC 20009

Your participation will help the D.C. Courts to enhance the fair and impartial administration of justice in the District of Columbia. For additional information on the Standing Committee on Fairness and Access, or to request an accommodation (for example, a language interpreter or a sign language interpreter), call Clifton Grandy at (202) 879-1700 or visit the Courts' website at: <http://www.dccourts.gov/dccourts/about/standing.jsp>.
